

I Am Thankful For...

11/25/2024

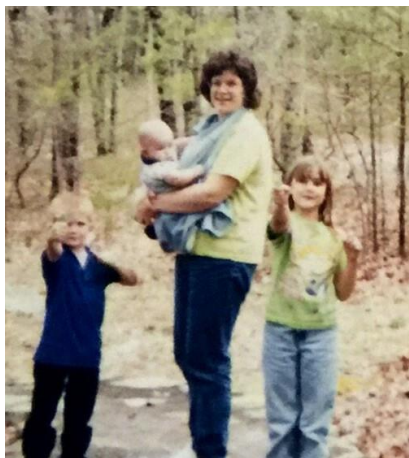

Above all, I'm so thankful for my precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. No surprise there... He is everything to me, and has been by my side through every trial, period of doubt and fear, and in my lowest moments. He has helped me find my feet again, if not for the first time. I am able to say without hesitation, that no matter what his plans may be for my remaining years, his love is enough. He is enough. I've never been able to say that with a full heart. I am thankful to know that it will be his face I see when it's time for me to go home and live with him forever.

I am so thankful for my three grown children, Chelsea, Samuel, and Benjamin. I'm so very grateful for my new daughter by marriage, Isabella. I'm thankful for my grandsons, Cason, and Alec. I'm thankful for Janette, Jewell, and Charles, my in-law family. I love you, and you will always hold a special place in my heart. I'm thankful to my ex-husband, Charlie, for making this family of mine possible. My dearest friend, Lori, is a cherished blessing in my life. She will never know how much her friendship means to me. I'm thankful for my parents. Even after the confusion and pain, I've learned a lot, and I know that God knew they were the only two people with the correct DNA it would take to create me.

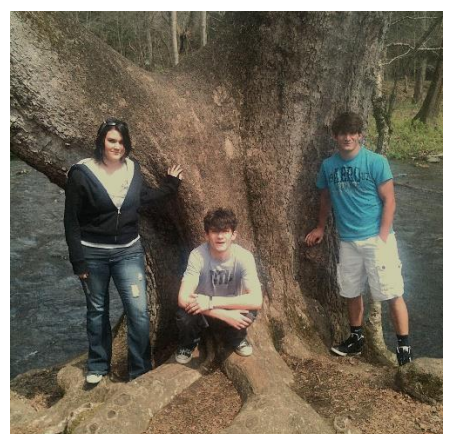

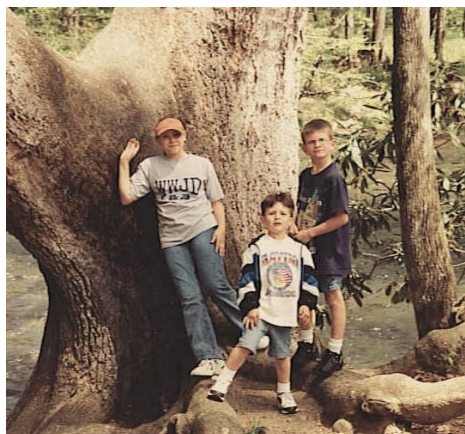

I guess I've been a little nostalgic these past few blogs, so enjoy some photos of the people I've mentioned above. Thank you for joining me on this walk down memory lane. I wish you and your families a very happy Thanksgiving. May God bless you always.

In His Name,

Lisa Jo

My three, Chelsea, Samuel, & Ben

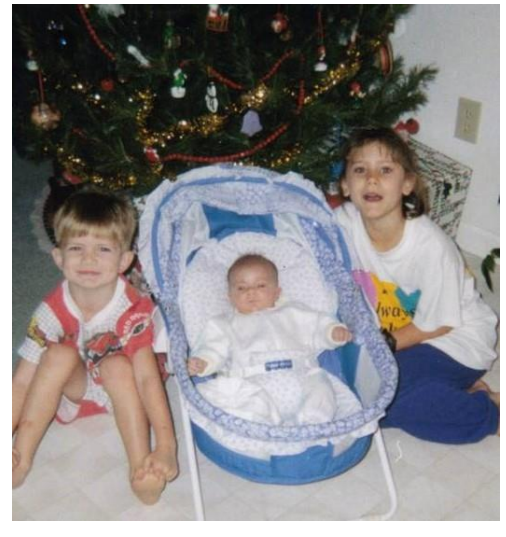

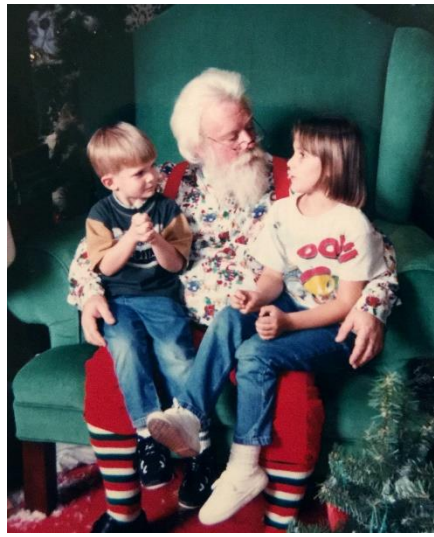

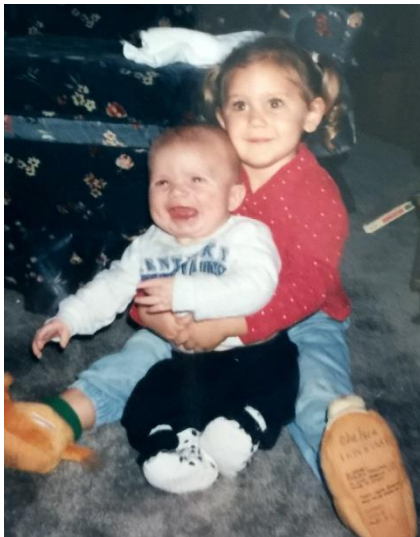

Grandsons, Cason & Alec

Christmas Memories

Two things I ask of you, Lord: do not refuse me before I die; Keep falsehood and lies far from me; give me neither poverty nor riches but give me only my daily bread. Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say, "Who is the Lord?" Or I may become poor and steal, and so dishonor the name of my God.

Proverbs 30:7-8

